About RMAA

Chartered by the State of New Jersey in 1966, RMAA is a non-profit organization with over 250 members. Membership categories are designed to give all members a chance to participate in the organization, which is dedicated to providing visual arts opportunities for interested persons of all ages. The majority of our members come from Northern New Jersey and neighboring New York State. All officers and directors are volunteers who donate their time and energy for further the Association, as do many of our members. With its home in historic Ringwood State Park, Ringwood Manor Association of the Arts is an "O.R.F.O.", an Officially Recognized Friends Organization of the State Park System. The Barn Gallery is located in Ringwood Manor's Carriage House and offers a showcase for artists of all media. Presenting six exhibitions and special sales in 2017, RMAA always welcomes new members and participants.
